

Given the choice, wouldn't you want to work here?

Life is full of choices. Some can be very difficult indeed. As a national charity that works closely with the NHS, we provide abortion and sexual healthcare services to women and men across the UK. We respect each individual's right to choose and we never judge.

Freedom of choice

In contrast, other choices are easy - by choosing to work for bpas you will be joining a long-standing, well established and successful organisation, and will help us to maintain the highest level of care for our clients.

Employer of choice

We continue to grow our network of clinics and treatment centres across the UK, and offer real job satisfaction and rewarding, flexible employment opportunities with long-term development prospects.

Individual choice

We have full and part time opportunities across many UK locations, and are able to offer family friendly, sociable working hours.

“The staff are wonderful and the setting is just right”

Client Quote

We have a wide range of job roles within the organisation, including opportunities for the right Nurses, Anaesthetic Nurses, Nurse Managers and Operating Department Practitioners.

Experience in sexual health or a related field is desirable, but more importantly, you will share our commitment to giving people the right to choose.

What we can offer to you
